Prayer and Action Network, Catholic Diocese of SLC: Green Tip: Valentine's Day is a veritable boon for chocolate companies. Ensure that you're supporting the most responsible confectioners by buying ethical, organic, local, or shade-grown. And if you can, resist the convenience of that frilly heart-shaped box with all those individual paper wrappings tucked into a plastic mold. Instead, go for a less packaged (but just as romantic) option. You can find ethical, fair trade chocolates at local stores or online at equalexchange.coop
