ANNOUNCEMENTS

We have vacancies on church council and our bylaws mandate they be filled. There are five general positions open at the moment, and one with more specific responsibilities; a need for building management liaison to work closely with the church office, triaging building repairs as needed (which might simply be calling the right service person for a repair). Call the church office if you're interested. Or catch any of the current council members when you see them and ask about how you can connect through grace by serving on council!
